THE CHARLEROI MAIL

VOLUME XXI—NO. 125 CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA. SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1920 TWO CENTS

REVENUE OFFICERS PAY AN UNEXPECTED VISIT TO CHARLEROI

Have Warrants to Search Eight Places for Illegal Liquor

OBTAIN QUITE A QUANTITY

Five Federal prohibition officers acting under direction of C. C. Gregg Federal Prohibition Officer in charge of the Pittsburg district, with offices at 301 Bowman building, Pittsburg, and in charge of D. J. McLaughlin, arrived in Charleroi this morning and at 10 o'clock began an investigation of a number of local hotels and clubs, with reference to the sale of liquor. The officers besides Mr. McLaughlin were S. M. Palmer, A. E. Kemmerline, A. B. Cooper and A. A. Silvus.

Five of the local hotels were visited, the Wilbur, Charleroi, Wellington, Arthur and Myford. In two of the hotels, the Wilbur and Wellington, the agents secured small quantities of liquor, a quart at the Wilbur, but they did not state how much at the Wellington, only saying it was a small quantity. They secured no liquor at the Arthur, Charleroi or Myford.

The big haul was secured at the National lunch room, at 1001 McKean avenue, of which Andy Chacko is the proprietor. The proprietor denied having any liquor in the house but some suspicious moves convinced the officers that there was some on hand. They accordingly began an investigation and on the back porch, covered with carpet they found a 10-gallon keg of whiskey, ten gallons of "moonshine," two cases of Jamica ginger and two gallons of whiskey in bottles. They also found several bottles of liquor in bread trays under tables and in cupboards.

They also visited Sokal Hall, Crest avenue, where they found about ten gallons of moonshine and a concoction called peppermit, all of which was confiscated.

A visit was also made to the Eagles Club by two of the officers while the others were on the hill at the Sokal Club The officers found great difficulty in getting into the building and asked quite a number of members for keys However, none being procured they looked about for means to get inside, saying that as a last resort they would break in the doors. However, in looking around the building they found a side window open, by means of which they got into the billiard room. After making a search they found twelve full quarts of whiskey and two bottles, each about half full all of which was confiscated.

All of these visits were made on warrants issued by the proper Federal authorities, which permitted the prohibition agents to make a full investigation of all premises under suspicion. In all of the eight cases from Charleroi the officers said they were reinforced by sales of liquor made at all of the places mentioned and that informations would be made against all of them. This would include the places in which no liquors were found.

These cases will be disposed of in the United States District Court at Pittsburg as soon as they can be reached.

The visit of the Prohibition officers caused quite a sensation in town, as it was entirely unexpected, and was a surprise to all citizens. Whether there will be other investigations is not known, although it is likely there will be some apprehension for some time in certain circles where liquor is known to have been kept in the past

The confiscated liquor was taken to the post office building and stored.

HALLAWE'EN SOCIAL BY PROTECTED HOME CIRCLE

A well attended meeting of Charleroi Circle, 303 Protected Home Circle was held last evening in P. H. C. hall. The regular business session was followed by a Hallowe'en Social. A drill and song by twelve girls in masquerade costumes was a feature of the evening. Solos were rendered by Dorothy Herst, Evelyn Baker, Garnet Martin and Arthur Lape.

ORCHESTRA FAILS TO KEEP PROMISE

Manager Robert Coyle, of the Coyle theatre, was a very much disappointed man last evening, when Cervonne's orchestra, which played at the Elks' Bingville dance, failed to put in an appearance at his theatre for the 7 o'clock show. Mr. Coyle had arranged with Cervonne by telephone for the engagement, which Mr. Cervonne promised to keep, saying he would be here in person.

Mr. Coyle expected the orchestra on the 5:45 car, but failed to see Mr. Cervonne, although two of the players arrived on the car. Two other of the players came out at 8:15, their car being one hour late, while two others of the orchestra did not arrive until 9 o'clock. Evidently there was some misunderstanding in the arrangements on the part of the orchestra, although Mr. Coyle had made definite arrangements and had expected to entertain the members of the orchestra at dinner. The failure of the orchestra to appear at the theatre was no fault of his, but he promises his patrons that at some later date he will arrange for it to come out and play for some evening show.

Rebecca J. Truxal

Rebecca J. Truxal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Truxal, died at her home in Belle Vernon. Friday night at 11:20 o'clock, in her 18th year. She had been ill since last fall, but only seriously so for the past three weeks. She was formerly employed in the office of the Pittsburg Plate Glass company at Charleroi, but had to relinquish her position last fall, which she was never able to resume. Funeral services from the home on Monday, at 1:30 p. m., interment in Belle Vernon cemetery.

INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY OR INDUSTRIAL AUTOCRACY WHICH?

Do you know how "The League of Nations," will benefit Labor? Do you know why the "Profiteers" are never imprisoned or deported? Do you know who profited most from the "World War," the workers or the exploiters? Do you know why there will be millions of unemployed workers, in the near future? These and other questions of vital importance to labor, will be discussed at the Mass Meeting to be addressed by Rev. P. W. Fuller, at Turner Hall tomorrow afternoon. A very enthusiastic meeting of Republican women was held in the council room at the borough building last night, Minnie B. Richardson, borough chairman, called the meeting to order, and introduced Mrs. Octave Jacqmain of Washington, who advocated the election of a straight Republican ticket, and Mrs J. N. O'Neil, who explained the ballot. The women are very enthusiastic over the outlook and promise to be active on election day in getting out the vote

BALANCE OF TICKET ALSO SAFE

The presidential campaign is virtually over, and the remaining two days will be spent by those in charge in looking after a number of details concerning the watching of the polls and the receiving of the vote. All meetings in connection with the campaign will have been held this this evening, and then the decision will be left to the voters The issues have been thoroughly presented, and while the campaign has been a very quiet one, yet at the same time the people have been watching events very closely and have their minds made up as to how they shall vote.

Pre-election forecasts indicate the election of Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge, with strong indications that the Senate and House will both be Republican In Washington county it is anticipated that the entire ticket will go through with handsome majorities.

Chairman C. E. Carothers, of the Republican county committee, is very optimistic over the outlook for the Republican ticket in next Tuesday's election. He said last evening:

"I see no reason to change my estimate of some days ago that Washington county would roll up a majority of at least 10,000 for the head of the ticket. The enthusiasm aroused within the past week indicates that a heavy vote will be polled and this of course is always of advantage to the majority party. The only danger that we have to face is overconfidence on the part of Republicans. This is sometimes a menace in close contests and should cause party workers this year to put forth unusual efforts to see that the full vote is polled.

"The opposition is urging many of our new voters to cut the ticket, hoping thereby to decrease the Republican majority. I think this effort will be futile, however, as I believe that all party members are awake to the importance of casting their ballots for all of the candidates. The meetings that have been held throughout the country have been remarkably well attended and the issues of the campaign have been discussed in pleasing and convincing ways."

"The claims of the opposing party have been shown up as fallacious and unstable and dangers lurking in the Wilson league of nations, have been clearly and definitely exposed. I can but reiterate what I said on a former occasion and that is that I have confidence in the Republicans of Washington county, both old and new voters and believe they will stand nobly by the party in this important year.

IS HOUSTON TRYING TO KEEP BONDS DOWN?

Is Secretary Houston trying to make a bond profiteer out of the Federal reasury? asks the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonothan Bourne, Jr.' as follows:

"Before the convention of the American Bankers' Association in Washington Secretary of the Treasury Houston strongly opposed the suggestion that Liberty Bonds be refunded at a higher rate of interest in order to bring them back to par. He even went so far as to characterize the plan as a 'bonus proposal for capital.' In spite of the fact that people were urged by the Treasury to buy Liberty Bonds on the assurance that they were even better than currency, and in spite of the further fact that it is due largely to the interference of a branch of the Treasury, the eFderal Reserve System, that the market prices of those securities have been reduced below par we find the chief of that department of the Government protesting against a restoration of their true value because it would be a 'bonus to capital.'

"In the first place, the refunding of Liberty Bonds at a higher rate of interest would put no additional expense whatever upon the Treasury, providing the refunding issues were in the shape of serial bonds In the second place, why is not capital entitled to the increased revenue and the increased value which such a refunding would produce? It is probably true that Liberty Bonds today are held by only about half the number who originally purchased them. Probably even Secretary Houston would not contend that those who have kept their first purchases are not entitled to their full value, hence his remarks about a bonus to capital may be considered as directed at those who have been purchasing bonds in the open market and at a figure below par.

"But why should capitalists of that class be subjected to discrimination They were the only recourse for the individual bondholders who were encouraged by the Treasury to subscribe for far more bonds than they could ultimately pay for The Federal Reserve Board brought pressure to bear upon banks carrying loans for such purchasers, and it was necessary for them to sell their partially paid up bonds Again, many small bond holders have been compelled to realize money for emergencies, and their bonds have been sold. It is no fault of the sellers or of the buyers that full face value was not paid for them. It was the fault rather of the Treasury in floating the bonds in the first instance and in regulating transactions in them after they had been absorbed, that depreciated the price Surely Mr. Houston's 'capitalists' can not be blamed for the reduction in value, nor can they be equitably denied any appreciation of that value that may come in the future. If it had not been for these 'capitalists' who purchased the bonds at even a depreciated price, the value of bonds would have gone still lower. In this connection it may be added that in recent weeks there has been a very marked re-absorotion of Liberty Bonds by the general public, a factor that has contributed to the rise in market price

"What sort of ethics is it that urges every citizen to buy bonds 'until it hurts,' paying full value therefore, then takes measures that bring about a depreciation of 10 to 15 per cent in price and then refuses to adopt a remedy that will repair the damage without cost to the Government? Under the sinking fund the Treasury is buying bonds in the market to the amount of about $250,000,000 a year. It is possible that Mr. Houston wants to keep the bonds down so that the United States Treasury can make a profit on the transaction, selling at 100 and buying back at 85 or 90? Such a practice would seem to bring a very decided 'bonus' to the Treasury, which has never been considered as a money-making institution at the expense of the public, but merely as the people's agent in handling funds for the upkeep of the Government."

Death has claimed a dear friend
And we will meet him no more,
His untimely end we shall ever deplore
There are sorrows and tears
In a once happy home
A mother and children are grieving alone.

There is a mother and children
There weeping alone
There is a chair ever vacant
In that humble home
There is a form that will never more
Enter the door.
The Father's dear voice
Will be heard there no more

We are happy today
We laugh and we sing
There are none can foretell
What tomorrow may bring
We know not the moment
Death may enter our door
Then a loved one is gone
To return nevermore.

Of trouble and sorrow
We all have our share,
The dread spectre of death
Fill our hearts with despair
In the darkness of night
And the bright light of day
He is constantly taking
Some loved one away.

VISIT POLLS EARLY AND AVOID THE RUSH

The importance of voting early on Tuesday next is again emphasized With almost twice as many voters as last year, there has been no material increase in election precincts or election officers. The same machinery that handled elections in the past must take care of details on Tuesday next. By voting early in the day citizens can materially assist election officers in their duties. This will refer particularly to women voters, who are urged to vote as early in the morning as possible. Many men are required to leave home before the polls are open, and do not get back before 5 or 6 o'clock. These men have but little time to go to the polls and if there should be a congestion at that time many of them might lose this privilege. Therefore, all who can should make it a point to get to the polls as early as possible.

WOMEN NEED NOT STAND IT

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Surely Removes Suffering and Pain. Here is Proof.

St. Paul, Neb.—"I suffered with periodical pain for about four years so that I was unable to do my work at times. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it. It soon stopped all my suffering so that I am now feeling fine in every way. I recommend your medicine to my friends who have similar troubles. You may publish this letter for the benefit of other women."—Mrs. Will Thomas, St. Paul, Neb.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

For forty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who now are free from suffering by its use.

Card of Thanks

We desire to extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks to our many friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy which we received during the suffering and death of our beloved husband, father and brother.

RADICAL-REDUCTIONS

Throughout the Store--In Every Department--To Meet the Public's Demand for Lower Prices!

NOVEMBER PRICE ADJUSTMENT SALES

OF NEW FALL AND WINTER APPAREL FOR WOMEN, MEN, BOYS AND GIRLS

—This Sale affects EVERY MAN, WOMAN and CHILD in this city. It reaches right into the heart of the home and influences every family purse. It is the boldest step attempted by a retail store to meet the public's demand for lower prices.

—The newspapers have educated the public to look for lower prices because of the reductions in raw materials. But stocks retailers have on hand were made up during the past six months when prices of woolens, silks, etc., were much higher.

—Therefore only if the retailer is willing to CUT HIS PRICES, SACRIFICE HIS PROFITS and TAKE A LOSS can he give the public LOWER PRICES NOW. That's EXACTLY what FRANK & SEDER have done and we have gone so far as to offer in this sale

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS' WORTH OF MERCHANDISE AT COST AND LESS THAN COST

—not ALL merchandise will be sold on this basis, BUT in EVERY DEPARTMENT the public will find RADICAL REDUCTIONS

For example we are going to sell $2 and $3 Worcester Corsets for a $1.00; Children's $2 Sleepers for 98c; Heavy Crash Toweling for 12c: Silk Taffeta Petticoats for $2.25; $40 to $70 Women's Suits, Dresses and Coats for $25; Men's Suits for $29, practically cost price; Men's Overalls for 79c; Women's Satin-Silk Smock for $1.29, worth $3. Think of it! A Boy's Suit or Overcoat for $1.00. (Subject to certain conditions.) Women's Pure Silk Hose worth $3.98—imagine it—for only $1.59 a pair; Women's Sandal Rubbers for 29c—we could go on giving a thousand items just as sensational—but these few will prove the extremes we have gone to in this sale and will give you an idea of the sacrifices we have made in every department.
